i Improved Citescore

We have updated the CiteScore methodology to ensure a more robust, stable and comprehensive metric which provides an indication of research impact, earlier. The updated methodology will be applied to the calculation of CiteScore, as well as retroactively for all previous CiteScore years (ie. 2018, 2017, 2016...). The previous CiteScore values have been removed and are no longer available.

The Scopus Author Identifier assigns a unique number to groups of documents written by the same author via an algorithm that matches authorship based on a certain criteria. If a document cannot be confidently matched with an author identifier, it is grouped separately. In this case, you may see more than one entry for the same author.

We have updated the CiteScore methodology to ensure a more robust, stable and comprehensive metric which provides an indication of research impact, earlier. The updated methodology will be applied to the calculation of CiteScore, as well as retroactively for all previous CiteScore years (ie. 2018, 2017, 2016...). The previous CiteScore values have been removed and are no longer available.

The screenshot shows the 'Web of Science Master Journal List' website. The top navigation bar includes 'Search Journals', 'Match Manuscript', 'Downloads', and 'Help Center'. A user is logged in as 'Welcome, Aram Raheem'. A modal window titled 'Manuscript Matcher' is open, providing instructions and input fields for finding journals. The modal text states: 'Manuscript Matcher helps you find the most related journals for your manuscript. It works best when your title has at least 10 words and your abstract has at least 100 words. Using this information, it will pull the most relevant keywords for matching. Please enter your manuscript information below.' There are two input fields: 'Title' and 'Abstract', each with a double-slash icon on the right. Below the 'Title' field, it says 'The manuscript title or relevant part(s) of the title. This works best with at least 10 words.' Below the 'Abstract' field, it says 'The manuscript abstract or relevant part(s) of the abstract. This works best with at least 100 words.' At the bottom of the modal are 'Cancel' and 'Find Journals' buttons. An orange arrow points from the 'Match Manuscript' link in the navigation bar to the 'Manuscript Matcher' modal.
